

Reformasi administrasi sebagai upaya alternatif mewujudkan good governance di Indonesia

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=131945&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

Administration reformation is the main changes in a bureaucracy system to change old structure, behavior and existence or habitual. Therefore, a better administration system in the space of governance and good cooperation between administrators and private world in development implementation and public service and professional public supervision, it can motivate the government to place itself professionally to overcome serious things deal with public service implementation and should be directed to giving the opportunity to community participation through the openness of governance mechanism, deregulation, decentralization and opportunity distribution and a fair competition as well together with protection to weak parties.