Abstrak

General election of Chiefs and Vice Chiefs of districts, directly made by citizens who had the right to elect, has been carried out in 2005, and 2010 is the period of the end of their commission. Because the services executed by those Chiefs and Vice Chiefs of districts elected in 2005 went on for five years, so now, it is time to make evaluation on that general election. This paper tries to analyze several aspects of general election of chiefs and vice chiefs of districts, specially the uncertainty of law and the problem of implementation of general election of chiefs and vice chiefs of districts which embrace: Contradiction between one stipulation with another stipulation, vacuum of law, i.e. some matters are not regulated, some stipulations have multi-interpretation, and various stipulations are hard to be implemented.
