

A short comparative account of word order in the English and Indonesian language

Masinambow, Eduard Karel Markus, author

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20158166&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

This work describes in very broad outline the various relative positions which a word may occupy in English in comparison with these it may occupy in Indonesian the work tites to give an account of how these two languages differ from and resemble one another in respect of wordorder through a contrastive description. Almost all the examples of wordgroups and sentences to be found here I have taken ready-made from the works stated in the list at the end...