Abstrak

This is an innovative book that addresses the question of how consumers make decisions about what is good and what is bad in popular culture. An entertaining and informative guide to the range of aesthetic criteria that goes into judging mass culture's most celebrated texts and objects, from Batman to motor bikes, and pop stars to internet pornography. Brings together a series of accessible and engaging essays written by connoisseurs of various areas of popular culture. Tackles the core question of how consumers make decisions about what is good popular culture and what is bad popular culture.
