Abstrak

Skripsi ini membahas tentang pengaruh inflasi dan operating cycle terhadap perusahaan manufaktur di Indonesia periode 2009-2013. Penelitian ini mengkaji pengaruh tingkat inflasi dan operating cycle pada cash holding perusahaan. Dari sisi makro yaitu inflasi sedangkan dari sisi mikro yaitu operating cycle. Berdasarkan penelitian yang dilakukan pada perusahaan manufaktur di Indonesia menunjukkan bahwa inflasi (CPI) tidak berpengaruh terhadap cash holding perusahaan. Sedangkan operating cycle dan cash holding memiliki hubungan yang positif sehingga apabila terjadi kenaikan operating cycle maka cash holding akan meningkat.

This study discusses the influence of inflation and the operating cycle of the manufacturing companies in Indonesia 2009-2013. This study examines the effect of the inflation rate and the operating cycle at the cash holding company. From the macro side is inflation, while on the micro side, namely operating cycle. Based on research conducted at manufacturing companies in Indonesia showed that inflation (CPI) has no effect on the cash holding company. While operating cycle and cash holding has a positive relationship so that in case of increase in the operating cycle, the cash holding will increase.
