Abstrak

Penelitian ini bertujuan menganalisis pengaruh corporate governance terhadap kinerja perusahaan pada bank yang terdaftar di Bursa Efek Indonesia periode 2007-2012. Corporate Governance dalam penelitian ini diukur dengan menggunakan efektifitas dewan komisaris dan efektifitas komite audit sebagai variabel independen, sementara kinerja perusahaan diukur dengan menggunakan metode Economic Value Added dan Market Value Added.

Hasil penelitian ini menunjukkan bahwa tata kelola perusahaan yang diprosikan dengan efektifitas dewan komisaris dan efektifitas komite audit berpengaruh positif signifikan terhadap Kinerja Perusahaan yang diukur dengan EVA. Hasil penelitian juga menunjukkan tidak adanya asosiasi yang signifikan antara efektifitas dewan komisaris dan efektifitas komite audit terhadap kinerja perusahaan yang diukur dengan MVA.

This research aims to analyze the effects of corporate governance on company's performance of listed banks in Indonesia Stock Exchange during 2007-2012. Corporate Governance in this study was measured by the Effectiveness of the Board of Commissioners and the Effectiveness of the Audit Committee as independent variable, while company's performance is measured by Economic Value Added and Market Value Added. The results of this study indicate that corporate governance has a positive and significant effect on company's performance which is measured by Economic Value Added. However, this study cannot find a significant association between the Effectiveness of the Board of Commissioners and the Effectiveness of the Audit Committee on company's performance which is measured by Market Value Added.
