Abstrak

ABSTRACT The progress of technology, which we can find today results in consumptive behavior of the society. This can be proved by the publication of product advertisements. As one of the persuasive texts, advertisements often use certain words, sentences, and pictures to draw people's attention and to make them more attractive. This special use of certain words and sentences is known as rhetorical figures. Through literature research and analytical-descriptive method, this journal aims to know which rhetorical figures are found in seven car advertisements of BMW Germany. Based on the research result, it can be concluded that there is at least one kind of rhetorical figures in each advertisements that emerge in various forms., The progress of technology, which we can find today results in consumptive behavior of the society.
