Abstrak

David versus Goliath is a war story which tells about the weak party versus strong one. The end of that story is the victory obtained by party who have small strength. This war also happened in the real world. The case happened in 2006, between Hezbollah and Israel. Although with very limited weapons, Hezbollah was able to defeat Israel who have large force and trained army. This story can be made example by other parties in all over the world to win a war with small strength.
