Communications is like a bond of our human social life. Without it our life such losing its soul. Phenomenologist, Alfred Schutz offers an alternative solution to recognize and analyze social communication, phenomenon, inspired by Husserl and Weber ideas, Schutz then nourished social act thought. He empahsized the meaning, structure and essences of life subjectively toward person who goes thrugh, feels and works by himself. According to this theory, one could not make generalization due to the fact that every human is uniquely different.
