Abstrak

The Balinese believe that Leyak or ghost is an etiology of illness. To become a Leyak or to ngleyak, one must perform black magic or pangleayakan. The method of obtaining the pangleayakan is by studying under a dukun pangleayakan or dukun pangiwa, a special indigenous medical practitioner who masters the pangleayakan. A person can also obtain the pangleayakan from his/her parent. Moreover, he or she can request the pangleayakan to Goddess Durga, the goddess of black magic. When pangleayakan is used by somebody, he/she becomes a Leyak, and will have the ability to take the shape of a certain animal, a ghostly light, a body without a head - the varieties are endless. This can only be performed at night. A Leyak disturbs other people until they are sick or even die. Nevertheless, they believe that they can cope with the Leyak through the use of amulet or by performing the magical religious ritual.
