ABSTRAK

Meskipun telah ada Undang-Undang CEDAW Convention of the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women, wanita masih diidentifikasi sebagai 'pendamping'; lelaki walau bagaimanapun kondisi atau situasi wanita tersebut. Tulisan ini memuat analisa hubungan antara tokoh utama anti superheroine Harley Quinn dengan para kolega lelaki nya di Suicide Squad the Movie: Extended Version 2016. Menggunakan analisis berbasis tekstual dan film, penulis mengungkapkan penerapan teori wanita sebagai budak dan lelaki sebagai majikan Hegelians yang telah terkonstruksi oleh masyarakat patriarki dengan tidak hanya melihat dari hubungan antar gender, namun juga penganalisaan psikologi cinta, dan relasi kekuasaan antara superior dan inferior. Penelitian ini menemukan bahwa dalam film Hollywood, terutama genre superhero, masih melanggengkan konstruksi gender. Meskipun ditampilkan sebagai tokoh yang kuat dan independen, tokoh perempuan masih inferior terhadap tokoh laki-laki, dan mereka dipaksa untuk menerima 'takdir' yang mengikat hidup mereka sendiri dan telah ditetapkan oleh masyarakat.

ABSTRACT

Despite the fact that CEDAW Convention of the Elimination of All Forms of Discriminations Against Women law has been dealing with issues regarding women's right and equality, women nowadays are still identified as man's 'sidekick' regardless any of her conditions. This paper examines the relationship of the major anti superheroine character Harley Quinn with her male colleagues in Suicide Squad the Movie Extended Version 2016. Through textual film analysis, the writer unveils the constructed theory of the female slave and the male master made by patriarchal society by not only looking at the gender relation but also analyzing the psychological of love, and the power relation between superior and inferior as well. Research finding reveals that Hollywood film, specifically the superhero genre, maintains gender construction. Although portrayed as strong and independent characters, female characters are still inferior to male ones, and they have to accept their fate to be trapped in their own life established by the society.
