

Development, security and unending war : governing the world of peoples

Duffield, Mark R., author

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20463992&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

With case studies drawn from Mozambique, Ethiopia and Afghanistan, the book provides a critical and historically informed analysis of the NGO movement, humanitarian intervention, sustainable development, human security, coherence, fragile states, migration and the place of racism within development. It is a must-read for all students and scholars of development, humanitarian intervention and security studies as well as anyone concerned with our present predicament