

Changes in power competition among political groups in south korea

Bum-sig Ha, author

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20487060&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

ABSTRAK

In south korea, due to democratization, the pattern of democratic and antidemocratic competing for political power is eliminated. but, there is growing concern about regionalism and confrontation between conservative and progressive caused by the split of liberty party and formation of liberal government. the development of regionalism in south korea is like jeolla region is progressive, and gyeongsang and chungcheong region is very strong conservative.