Abstrak

Skripsi ini membahas mengenai perilaku konsumen hotel butik di Indonesia. Penelitian ini bertujuan untuk mengetahui bagaimana persepsi brand authenticity, impression in memory, lifestyle-congruence, dan brand lovesaling berhubungan satu sama lain. Penelitian ini juga turut mengidentifikasi peran moderasi dari need for uniqueness dan price fairness dalam konteks hotel butik di Indonesia. Dengan menggunakan metode analisis Structural Equation Modelling (SEM), penelitian ini membuktikan bahwa terdapat hubungan positif antara brand authenticity dengan impression in memory, brand love, serta lifestyle-congruence. Penelitian juga membuktikan bahwa pengaruh dari brand authenticity dalam pembentukan brand love akan lebih signifikan apabila terdapat peran impression in memory dan lifestyle-congruence yang terlibat. Selain itu, hasil penelitian juga memebuktikan bahwa need for uniqueness yang dimiliki para tamu hotel butik dapat memoderasi ketiga hubungan milik brand authenticity tersebut, sedangkan price fairness hanya memoderasi dua dari ketiga hubungan brand authenticity, yaitu pada impression in memory dan brand love.
