

The Indonesian idea of multiculturalist, democratization, and national integration

Franssminggi Kamasa, author

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20512674&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

This paper reviews at how democracy in Indonesia is evolving, both as institution and as an idea in the minds of its citizen. The relationship between the central government and the regions in Indonesia are undergoing change, with a serous challenge to central authority along with related moves to decentralized political authority and economic responsibility.