Abstrak

Dalam sistem politik, persetujuan sering kali direkayasa dengan tujuan memenuhi kepentingan grup semata. Kemudahan merekayasa ini membuat para politisi saling berlomba untuk menggiring opini publik menggunakan teknik framing. Akan tetapi, framing sering dinyatakan telah merusak salah satu fungsi jurnalis yaitu gatekeeping. Penelitian ini bertujuan untuk menganalisis lebih jauh bagaimana framing digunakan dalam sistem politik demokrasi Australia melalui contoh kasus John Howard, seorang perdana menteri Australia di era 1990-an.

.....In the political system, consent often gets manufactured. Therefore, politicians compete with each other to tame and steer the public's opinion with framing technique. However, the act of framing is said to corrupt journalists' function of gatekeeping. This paper aims to analyse further how the case of framing played out in Australia's democratic political system through the case of John Howard, Australia's prime minister back in the 1990s.
