Adanya sistem patriarki yang berkuasa mengendalikan kehidupan sosial-politik, perlahan mengancam eksistensi tubuh perempuan. Bentuk dari politisasi patriarki telah mengakar pada ranah ideologis, biologis, dan sosiologis yang mempengaruhi pengalaman perempuan. Upaya revolusi seksual yang sudah dilakukan masih mendapatkan polemik yang begitu besar, sehingga patriarki belum maksimal dimusnahkan. Penulis menggunakan metode riset feminis yang bertujuan untuk mencari contoh pengalaman perempuan yang memiliki kaitan dengan persoalan politik seksual, childfree, dan motherhood. Selain itu, ada metode kritik feminis yang digunakan sebagai alat mengkritisi sistem patriarki yang telah mendiskriminasi kehidupan perempuan, baik itu haknya, pilihannya, atau tubuhnya. Berdasarkan penelitian yang dilakukan, penulis menemukan adanya tindakan politis yang dilakukan oleh sistem patriarki terhadap perempuan childfree melalui konsepsi motherhood.

.....This article is a philosophical analysis research on the politicized childfree of women's bodies in terms of Kate Millett's theory of sexual politics. The existence of a patriarchal system that controls socio-political life slowly threatens the existence of women's bodies. This form of patriarchal politicization has its roots in the ideological, biological, and sociological domains that influence women's experiences. The efforts of sexual revolution that have been carried out still find such a big polemic, so that patriarchy has not been maximally annihilated. The author uses a feminist research method that aims to find examples of women's experiences that are related to issues of sexual politics, childfreedom, and motherhood. In addition, there is a method of feminist criticism that is used as a tool to criticize the patriarchal system that has discriminated against women's lives, be it their rights, choices, or bodies. Based on the research conducted, the authors found that there were political actions carried out by the patriarchal system against childfree women through the conception of motherhood.
