

Regulasi memori dalam pengarsipan rekonstruksi sejarah

Harfiah Widiawati, author

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=68891&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

Writing and documentation involve a process of selection and arrangement. Archives; therefore, is a system which organize the documentation of writings, documents and notes. Archives become a structure that organizes memories because of their close ties with the past. Archives legitimize and control the history of mankind. This article seeks to discuss how archive system can reconstruct or constructs history of a nation and the relationship between power and archive system. Supersemar is a concrete example of how power constructs a political history regulated for New Order regime's interests