Abstrak

Indonesia and Belanda are known to have many connections because there was continuous contact in the past so that there were various impacts in various aspects. One aspect that has been affected to this day is culture, as in Dutch restaurants in Indonesia which carry out cultural acculturation. This research was made with the aim of knowing what cultural adjustment efforts in the form of acculturation have been carried out by the H.E.M.A. Restaurant. TIS Square Tebet acculturates in the form of language, food, clothing, and also building architecture as an effort to adapt Dutch culture in Indonesia. Efforts to acculturate Dutch and Indonesian culture carried out by the H.E.M.A. Restaurant succeeded in attracting the attention of the visitors because it could increase knowledge of Dutch and Indonesian culture.
