ABSTRACT

Skripsi ini membahas mengenai hubungan kekuasaan antara pemerintah federal dengan pemerintah negara bagian Arizona terkait dengan kebijakan Support Our Law Enforcement and Safe Our Neighborhood Act. Dalam penyelesaian tersebut, terlihatlah peranan Mahkamah Agung selaku pengadilan tertinggi untuk dapat menengahi sengketa. Penelitian ini merupakan sebuah penelitian kualitatif. Untuk menjawab permasalahan dalam penelitian ini, digunakan pendekatan atau konsep judicial restrain, di mana konsep tersebut mejelaskan interpretasi Mahkamah Agung atas sesuatu hal yang bersumber dari Konstitusi. Temuan dalam penelitian ini adalah bahwa konflik yang terjadi di antara pemerintah federal dan pemerintah negara bagian Arizona disebabkan oleh adanya perbedaan pandangan, serta keputusan Mahkamah Agung yang di dasarkan atas supremacy clause Konstitusi Amerika Serikat, dalam menyelesaikan perselisihan tersebut.

ABSTRACT

This undergraduate thesis examines the power relation between federal government and the government of Arizona State related to dispute of “Support Our Law Enforcement and Safe Our Neighborhood Act” policy. The Supreme Court of The United States stepped in to settle the problem. The settlement by The Supreme Court was mandated by the US Constitution. This study is a qualitative study. To answer the question that being asked in this thesis, the approach of “judicial restrain” is used. The finding of this study is that the conflict happened between federal government and the government of Arizona state was caused by different opinion of state and federal government. Beside that, this study also found that the Supreme Court decision was based on the “supremacy clause” of the United States’s Constitution.
